

For immediate release, 11 November 2016

Joint Statement by a group of High Ambition Coalition Ministers

“The Paris Agreement marks a turning point toward a more prosperous and stable world. Acting on climate change is in all of our national interests – it is good for our environment, good for our economies, and good for our climate security. Our commitment to be climate leaders remains steadfast, as is our commitment to work with the whole international community, including the United States, to tackle one of the greatest challenges of our time.”

Issued on behalf of the following:

Mattlan Zackhras, Minister-in-Assistance to the President, Republic of the Marshall Islands
Miguel Arias Cañete, Commissioner for Climate Action & Energy, European Union
Ségolène Royal, Minister of Ecology, Sustainable Development & Energy, France
Pa Ousman Jarju, Minister of Environment & Climate Change, The Gambia
Barbara Hendricks, Minister of Environment & Nature Conservation, Germany
Rafael Pacchiano Alamán, Secretary of Environment & Natural Resources, Mexico
Hakima El Haite, Minister Delegate of Environment, Morocco
Vidar Helgesen, Minister of Climate & Environment, Norway
Gale T. C. Rigobert, Minister for Sustainable Development, Saint Lucia
Isabella Lövin, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister for International Development & Climate, Sweden
Kamal Uddin Ahmed, Permanent Secretary of Ministry of Environment & Forests, Bangladesh
Tosi Mpanu-Mpanu, Chair, Least Developed Countries

HAC@HighAmbitionCoalition.org